

PRESS RELEASE

Senior Athletes Shine at First Annual Athletic Awards

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – On Thursday June 12, 2014 Passaic County Technical Institute's (PCTI) Athletic Department honored the accolades and achievements of their outstanding senior student-athletes with an evening designed to celebrate their many accomplishments. The First Annual Athletic Awards showcased the highs of the year and saw 44 student-athletes presented with the David Miller Scholar Athlete Nomination—an award that acknowledges those who earned two or more Varsity Letters in their final year at PCTI.

The Athletic Department also presented a number of special awards which included the NJTAC Male and Female Scholar Athlete Award (Isaac Pichardo & Katerin Munguia), the NJSIAA Scholar Athlete Award (Enrique Basuari), the Big North Conference Student-Athlete Award (Jared-Daniel Quintero & Chaz Wozney), the PCCA Student-Athlete Nomination (Thomas Jefferson & Breasha Morton), the Old Timers Athletic Association of Greater Paterson Award (Breasha Morton & Kierona Morton), and the PCTI Male and Female Athlete of the Year Award (Travelle Curry & Tamira Easterling). Additionally, the ceremony acknowledged two seniors who were named Record Athletes of the Week – Thomas Jefferson and Breasha Morton.

The evening concluded with a dinner reception featuring a room transformed by a 25 foot Bulldog Tunnel and the presence of the school's mascot, "Spike."

Congratulations to all of PCTI's senior athletes on their accomplishments throughout the year!

Photo Caption: PCTI senior athletes gather around the Bulldog Tunnel in the main gymnasium and showcase their David Miller Scholar Athlete Nomination awards.