Morgan Advanced Materials Announced PCTI Business Partner of the Year!

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) unveiled their Business Partner of the Year for 2015-2016. The honor goes to Morgan Advanced Materials in Fairfield, NJ. General Manager Mr. Jerry McConvery accepted the award at a recent board meeting.

The career and technical high school has experienced an incredibly beneficial partnership with the advanced materials company. Morgan is known for providing technically complex and bespoke solutions to customers, enabling affiliates to address global trends in energy demand, healthcare, and environmental sustainability.

The company currently employs school-year and summer interns from PCTI. In addition, Mr. McConvery of Morgan Advance Materials is a valuable member of the school’s Engineering and Manufacturing Technology advisory boards (which assists in enhancing the learning experience of students). The company also provides mentoring, instruction in technical skills, career opportunities, and visitations for PCTI faculty and students.

Passaic County Technical Institute would like to sincerely thank Morgan Advanced Materials for their long-standing support which ensures students receive real-world career experience that enhances their success in the world after high school.

PCTI Board of Education members Michael Coscia (Commissioner), Damaris Solomon (Vice President), Al Alexander (President), Glenn L. Brown (Commissioner), Robert Davis (Commissioner/Acting Executive County Superintendent), Supervisor Bob Gray, and STC Coordinator Mark Cacace, award Mr. Jerry McConvery of Morgan Advanced Materials with the Business Partner of the Year award.
