Criminal Justice Students Clean Sweep Law Day Competitions

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE –Passaic County Technical Institute’s (PCTI) Criminal Justice students entered and swept two contests in honor of 2016’s Law Day. This year’s theme was, “Miranda: More than Just Words.” Jazmine Bandala and Tahmina Chowdhury took home the coveted gold for their ABA (American Bar Association) Young Lawyer Division Video Contest submission. Their video was also awarded 3rd place in the Passaic County Superior Court Law Day Video Contest. Additionally Nassim Amiro won 1st place in the Passaic County Superior Court Law Day Poetry Contest, while Karalia Linzan took home the silver in the Passaic County Superior Court Law Day Video Contest.

The Passaic County Superior Court also hosted an awards ceremony that featured related educational presentations on May 6th. Those in attendance were able to witness swearing in ceremony for new American citizens and simultaneously deepened their understanding of the court process. Congratulations to all!

PCTI Criminal Justice students Jazmine Bandala (Paterson) and Tahmina Chowdhury (Paterson) showcase their award at the Passaic County Superior Court awards ceremony.
