Lincoln of Wayne Presents PCTI with Check for Scholarships

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE –Lincoln of Wayne recently awarded Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) with an eight thousand dollar check in light of the high school’s participation in their “Driven to Give” event, an initiative that exchanged test drives for scholarship funds to benefit the educational endeavors of faculty and students.

The initiative was spearheaded by PCTI’s Education Foundation which is known for going above and beyond in reaching out to regional, business, and community groups. Education Foundation President Al Alexander and Chief School Administrator Diana C. Lobosco accepted the donation from Lincoln of Wayne General Manager, Peter Spina Jr. and his Client Relations team.

Since its inception eighteen years ago, PCTI’s Education Foundation has raised proceeds that exceed $985,000!

Kylie Brienza (Lincoln of Wayne Client Relations Representative) and Robyn DePack (Lincoln of Wayne Client Relations Coordinator) join PCTI Education Foundation President Al Alexander, Lincoln of Wayne General Manager Peter Spina Jr., PCTI Chief School Administrator Diana C. Lobosco, PCTI Principal Dr. Michael Parent, Nicole Tomko (Lincoln of Wayne Client Relations Director), and Omar Robinson (Lincoln of Wayne Client Relations Representative) in delivering the “Driven to Give” event check that will benefit the futures of faculty and staff at Passaic County Technical Institute.
