

PCTI Student Uniform Requirements

2017 - 2018

Uniform Expectation Agreement

In an effort to raise the level of expectations and maintain a safe, orderly educational environment, Passaic County Technical Institute requires a uniform for all students. Parents and students are required to sign the PCTI Uniform Expectation Agreement.

PCTI's Standard Student School Uniform Attire

PCTI uniform Royal Blue or White (long or short sleeve) polo shirts are required to be worn each school day (with the exception of "Spirit Days").

PCTI Polo Shirts must be purchased from the approved school uniform provider and outfitted with the approved PCTI logo.

Non-polo PCTI shirts, jerseys, or other shop-specific polo shirts may only be worn on designated "Spirit Days".

PCTI uniform code requires that all students wear the appropriate color khaki pants, shorts, or skirts worn with either a black or brown belt.

Shorts, skorts or skirts can only be purchased at the approved school uniform provider. Appropriate color and type of Khaki pants may be purchased at any outlet or store.

PCTI Uniform Pants

The pants below meet the PCTI student uniform policy.

This is fine

OK

OK

OK

OK

OK

Plain Khaki Pants

Plain Khaki Pants

Plain Khaki Pants

Plain Khaki Pants

Plain Khaki Pants

Prohibited Pants Styles are

- Cargo and skinny or tapered style pants or shorts
- Pants with pockets sewn on the outside
- Khaki colored jeans
- Color variations (inappropriate)
- Pants with elastic or other draw strings at the waist and/or ankles
- Pants with stitching, special designs, and/or labels
- Pants legs cannot be made "skinny"
- Skirts or shorts may not be shorter than a fingertip's length when arms are extended down.
- Cargo shorts, cargo pants, skinny jeans, and jeans are not permitted to be worn, unless it is a "Spirit Day".
- Cut off style shorts.
- Other legging styles such as fish net, lace, patterned, striped, etc. may not be worn.
- Rolling of pant legs, cutting of pants, and other fashion statement alterations.
- Etc...

Jeans

Pockets

No Good

Examples of Violations

Cargo

Draw String

Rolled / Cuffed

No Good

Examples of Violations

Skinny, Tight and Tapered

No Good

Examples of Violations

Examples of Violations

No Good

Jeans

Also Permitted

PCTI permits students to wear solid colored sweaters (pullovers, cardigans, V-necks), vests, fleece wear, sweatshirts, or hoodies, displaying an approved PCTI logo. These items can be obtained from Co-Ed Uniform Company or from the PCTI School Store. Acceptable colors for such items are Navy, Royal Blue, Black, White, and Gray. Please note that a PCTI uniform polo shirt must be worn under such items at all times.

Prohibited Clothing Items

- Hats and all other types of headwear including bandanas, sweatbands, wave caps, etc. with the exception of headwear worn for religious affiliations.
- Logos, insignias, labels, and symbols other than the school logo are prohibited from being worn on all school uniform clothing items.
- Slippers, sandals, flip flops, or any shoes with loose or untied laces or straps that may pose a safety hazard.
- Oversized or flamboyant belt buckles.
- Winter coats, jackets, etc. are not to be worn during class time. These items should be stored in lockers during the day when possible or placed on the back of desk chairs during class time.
- Chains, pouches, hats, etc., hanging from belts.
- Other garments worn over the PCTI uniform polo shirt other than those identified above as “additional acceptable uniform attire.”

- ✓ Purchased or provided PCTI "tech wear" including PCTI athletic team wear
- ✓ Shop or Class specific polo shirts
- ✓ Students choosing not to participate in "Spirit Day" must adhere to the Student dress code guidelines

Spirit Day Attire